To guide and protect me
A beautiful white bird from the mountains of the west
A breeze of tranquility
My Mother I ask you to clear my mind
Relieve this anxiety

My Father makes his home on the mountain so high
He brings its forces to me
Aligns me with the earth and the sky
My heart, my destiny
My Father I offer this pain, this grief
These things I no longer need
My brothers, my sisters, my daughters, my sons
The time to gather is here
Strengthen your hearts and firm your minds
